The story of Halloween

Halloween is on the thirty-first of October. It comes from an old Celtic festival called Samhain, at the end of the summer. People believed that on that night the spirits came back to visit the world.

Today, children in the UK, Ireland and the USA dress up as witches, ghosts, skeletons and monsters. They go from house to house and say «Trick or treat!». People usually give them sweets.

Families carve pumpkins and put a candle inside: they are called jack-o'-lanterns. A long time ago, in Ireland, people carved turnips, not pumpkins!

Words believed = credevano dress up = si travestono carve = intagliano turnips = rape
